From London Borough of Newham: Diabetes Week (13 - 19 June) Activities in Newham - This Diabetes Week we're encouraging residents to get free health and diabetes checks on our Newham Health Bus (run in partnership with the Newham Health Collaborative), which will be visiting locations around the borough. Find out where we'll be at www.newham.gov.uk/diabetes. Diabetes affects 28,000 Newham residents, about one in 14 people, and those from South Asian, Black African and African-Caribbean backgrounds have an increased risk of developing it. There are lots of small things you can do to live well, like walking every day, eating more vegetables and fewer sugary foods and drinks. We have lots of FREE support in Newham to help you. Find what's right for you and sign up today: www.newham.gov.uk/diabetes. If you can't make it to our bus, you can check your risk of Type 2 diabetes by going to riskscore.diabetes.org.uk. Find out the signs and symptoms of T2 diabetes and speak to your GP if you experience any of these.
